BRYN MAWR COLLEGE

Bryn Mawr, Pa.

"Thou Gracious INSPIRATION . .

. . . our guiding star. We, the class of 1946, leave college with faith in the future, recognizing that our decisions in the coming years will be tempered by the changes which the past four years have brought. We feel that Bryn Mawr has taught us to recognize and to adopt the best of the past and the present as guides for the future and we acknowledge the grave task before us—that of preserving the newly won peace.

As the first war class and the first peace class, we have worked and studied in crucial times. Some of us felt it imperative to leave college in order to take a more active part in the war; those who remained gave time and energy to volunteer activities in addition to their regular academic work. Now, with the war years behind us, we are ready to take our part in the peace of tomorrow.

.... Mistress and Mother..

All Hail....

BRYN MAWR"

B

BECAUSE, in his thirty years at Bryn Mawr, he has devoted himself wholeheartedly to the interests of the college as an institution and, at the same time, has been aware of the importance of the individual members; because he has been a source of continued encouragement and advice to the members of the chemistry department; because of his untiring service in varied campus and faculty organizations; and because of his ready sense of humor and sympathetic understanding in difficult situations; with sincere respect and affection,

WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO . . . .

O Nobili!

Begone dull care.

Parade Night

Heigh-ho, heigh-ho,

Parading we must go,

*"From Pembroke Arch
we start our march."*

To meet the foe.

I need six credits.

Boy, ain't we neat.

Good comrades that we are.

"To Work, To Play."

To the glory of Bryn Mawr!

"Sophias, philai . . ."

Akoue.

Pallas Athena thea.

LANTERN NIGHT

Jackie, boy! Sing ye well?

The Cloisters.

“For Thy great wisdom we strive . . . ”

CHRISTMAS

Joshua fit the battle.

From far away we come to you.

Minuit Chretien.

'Tis the season to be jolly.

Semper Fidelis.

Deck the halls.

FOR WHOM THE SIRENS SCREAM

FRESHMAN SHOW — FEB. 20TH

Our animal.

OUR freshman show was the best freshman show! 'There's every kind of girl at Bryn Mawr' and they all know our animal—no less than Dr. Herben — and our show songs. In shows, the Blues have it!

"Your show had vim, verve,
'twas superb . . ."

Good Comrades

Arsenic and Old Lace.

Maids' Bureau—answer to a prayer.

For we read German . . .

Winter's reign has passed away.

Bryn Mawr is a windy hill.

Strictly formal.

On the air.

Open house.

Summertime.

By the sea.

Verdandi.

Nobel prizes.

That neat Varga figure.

Attention Billy Rose.

"Heigh ho! come to the fair!"

With trinkets,

Are You With It?

And tokens,

So pretty to see.

The star of the show.

A good time was had by all.

"Black out those German swastikas

with . . . WAR WORK"

That bedside manner.

Hail the conquering heroine!

The farmer's daughters.

And sometimes they sat . . .

Summer Camp. The seashore is exciting!

Future Florence
Nightingales.

"To the Maypole let us on . . ."

Gaily they wave.

Now is the month of Maying.

Merrily they roll along.

Behold the Queen.

MAY DAY dawns early!
It's a gala event.

By the dawn's early light.

Fly and friend.

May is here, the world rejoices.

On our merry way.

The Junior Prom had a wishing pool.

Diplomats!

"We are the Seniors, the best

The last weeks were hectic; after the comprehensives there were parties, parents and packing but somehow we managed to reach Graduation Day. We all got cum laudes—at least some of us did and lived up to the ideal of a senior.

The Dean.

We all fall in line.

Physical education.

Alles schweiget Nachtigallen.

of the lot . . . ”

When we received that piece of paper telling us that we were entitled to the privileges of a Bachelor of “Orts”, we could look back on our four years with a carefree smile and look forward to the future with—a job.

After commencement was over.

Food for thought.

The Bard's right hand man.

“ . . . The Male Population

falls down at our feet . . . ”

"One Picture Is Worth A Thousand Words"

Especially when that picture is made by 'CameraMasterS'

The experience of Two Generations of Photographers went into making most of the photographs in this book . . . Photographs to tell an everlasting story.

Yes, Two Generations of Photographers offer a special service to Editor and Class Advisor, a service which includes, not only making Portraits, Groups and Candid Photographs, but also suggesting ideas for adding interest to the Yearbook.

The small Yearbook and large, can be just as interesting, by making every photograph count. We will gladly show you how.
